Read the passage below carefully and answer the questions that follow.

Nemo is a small fish. He loved to swim alone in the sea. One day, he went to the surface of the water to look at the beach. He saw a lot of rubbish on the surface. He was so sad and angry. He told his father about it. His father advised him not to go to the surface of the water again. He was afraid something bad might happen to Nemo.

The next morning, Nemo went to the surface of the water again. He saw a large boat on the surface. He tried to go nearer to the boat. Suddenly, he was caught in a net!

Nemo struggled to escape but failed. He was so upset for not listening to his father's advice. The fisherman grinned and tried to grab Nemo. Fortunately, a little boy asked the fisherman to release Nemo. The fisherman threw Nemo back into the sea. Nemo was so relieved and happy. He promised not to go near to the surface of the water again.
